

≡ Item Navigation

Glossary terms from week 2

Terms and definitions from Course 8, Week 2

Data controller: A person that determines the procedure and purpose for processing data

Data processor: A person that is responsible for processing data on behalf of the data controller

Data protection officer (DPO): An individual that is responsible for monitoring the compliance of an organization's data protection procedures

Escalation policy: A set of actions that outlines who should be notified when an incident alert occurs and how that incident should be handled

Improper usage: An incident type that occurs when an employee of an organization violates the organization's acceptable use policies

Incident escalation: The process of identifying a potential security incident, triaging it, and handing it off to a more experienced team member

Malware infection: An incident type that occurs when malicious software designed to disrupt a system infiltrates an organization's computers or network

Unauthorized access: An incident type that occurs when an individual gains digital or physical access to a system or an application without permission

Mark as completed

Like

Dislike

Report an issue